ANEX - HIRINIG A PROFESSIONAL SKIPPER

If the client has hired a professional skipper for a vessel that is normally rented as a bareboat vessel, and professional skipper was provided by Euronautic, the hired skipper has the function of captain of the vessel and assumes all duties and responsibilities of the client, which are related to the mandatory possession of all valid licenses (passport (person card), license to operate the vessel accepted by the Ministry of the Sea, license for VHF/GMDSS).

The contract must be concluded directly between the client and the hired skipper of the vessel, as well as the form and method of payment. Euronautic is obligated to deliver the contact of the skipper provided.

The chartered skipper is obliged to respect all CLIENT OBLIGATIONS from these General Conditions, to ensure safe navigation and protection of the vessel and the people on the vessel.

The client is obliged to respect all decisions made by the hired skipper of the vessel, in terms of determining the route and adjusting the route to weather conditions. Also, the client is obliged to provide meals for the hired skipper for the entire duration of the charter.

For vessels chartered with a skipper of the vessel, it is not possible to secure a deposit directly with Euronautic.

Chartered skipper assumes complete responsibility for the safe navigation and safety of the vessel and the people on it, and he is independently responsible for all damages caused by navigation. In the specified case from this article, the Client is responsible for damages caused by his direct actions, or the actions of other passengers on board.

It is advisable not to make the payment to the hired skipper before the check out on the boat.

In case of any dispute, Euronautic is not obliged to provide a new skipper.

Euronautic has no responsibility in any respect for the relationship between the client and the hired skipper.
